

Design & Technology

Design and Technology

Throughout Key Stages 1 and 2 children complete design and technology projects in materials, textiles, food and control mechanisms. These projects provide opportunities for the children to design and make products, learn and develop practical skills and investigate and evaluate simple products. Cooking opportunities are available to the children through topics or enrichment activities.